

Give the Gift of AIChE Membership for Just $49

You know how valuable your AIChE membership is to you.

Now you can share that experience with others.

Active members like you know the value of AIChE membership. You benefit from education offerings through new Instructor-Led Courses, in-person classes and AIChE's eLearning Center with convenient online courses; free credits for ChemE on Demand; 12 monthly issues of CEP magazine; meeting discounts; membership in Divisions, Forums, and Local Sections; weekly industry updates through AIChE SmartBrief; 24/7 access to the AIChE eLibrary and more.

Why not share the gift of membership with someone who can benefit from the Institute?

You probably know someone who would benefit from belonging to AIChE. It could be

- ✓ An outstanding employee
- ✓ A recent graduate who has just entered the workforce
- ✓ A colleague who hasn't yet joined
- ✓ Any chemical engineer who wants to connect to the deepest resources and the brightest brains.

Gift memberships for 2014 cost just $49 each. You may give as many as you like.

Because this offer is so valuable, we must restrict it to new members (good for new professional membership through December 31, 2014 in U.S. only). Membership renewals cannot be given as gifts.

To take advantage of this offer, please fill out the form on the back of this flyer and return it to AIChE.
