

Incidents that Define Process Safety

On page 58, in describing the catastrophic incident in Mexico City, Incidents that Define Process Safety states that the largest explosion was measured at .5 on the Richter Scale by a seismometers that was 20 km away.

Since publication, it has been pointed out that some references give 0.5 as the Richter scale value while others give 5.