

2010 AIChE Midwest Regional Conference

September 30 - October 1st, 2010
Illinois Institute of Technology (IIT), Chicago, IL

The American Institute of Chemical Engineers \(AIChE\), and the College of Engineering at IIT is holding the 2010 Midwest Regional Conference on September 30 – October 1st, 2010.

The AIChE Midwest Regional Conference continues into its third consecutive year, with the Chicago Local Section and AIChE headquarters support organizing a conference that provides an opportunity for engineers and scientists in the region to learn about new technologies, as well as offer a relaxed atmosphere for networking.

This two-day symposium features programming in the following topics:

Thursday

- Design for Sustainability
- Process Safety Development
- Sustainable Energy Systems
- Petroleum Refining
- Homeland Security and US EPA
- Innovative Research @ UIC and IIT

Friday

- Process Industry Practice
- Energy & Environment
- Humor in Engineering Innovation
- Innovative Research @ NW
- Biological and Pharmaceutical Processes
- UOP Renewable Chemicals Developments

These sessions will feature invited presentations by leading Governmental and academic professionals and promise to focus on the challenges and the opportunities in energy and sustainability.

Enhancing the symposia is a high school student outreach program for local schools. The featured speaker is Dr. Al Sacco — Professor at Northeastern University and former NASA astronaut.

Other highlights include:

- Keynote Speakers:
  - Maria Burka, Program Director, National Science Foundation
  - Bill Hoback, Deputy Director of the Office of Coal Development for the State of Illinois
- YPAB sponsored resume workshop and practice interviews

You benefit from learning about the new areas of research, development & new applications while networking with leading authorities in these areas. You will also earn Professional Development Hours for attendance, which can be used to keep P.E. and other licenses current.
