ENVIRONMENTAL DIVISION OF AIChE

Connect with like-minded colleagues and take advantage of all AIChE has to offer.

About AIChE

Founded in 1908, AIChE is the world's leading organization for chemical engineering professionals, with more than 60,000 members from more than 110 countries. AIChE has the breadth of resources and expertise you need whether you are in core process industries or emerging areas.

As a member, you can access information on recognized and promising chemical engineering processes and methods. Connect with a global network of intelligent, resourceful colleagues and their shared wisdom. Find learning opportunities from recognized authorities. Move forward professionally with AIChE and enrich the world we live in.

About the Environmental Division

Since 1970, the AIChE Environmental Division has served as the focal point for environmental applications of chemical engineering.

The Environmental Division provides relevant programs on current environmental topics and non-confidential information concerning all aspects of environmental activity. The division promotes publication of papers of interest to chemical engineers in environmental activities as well as coordinates the Institute's activities with other related societies.

AICHE's Environmental Division is a welcoming community that offers me an opportunity to meet with experts from other academic institutions, industry, and government. This broad perspective fosters collaboration and the development of new ideas. It also helps me learn about real-world challenges that inspire my research.

Kerry Kelly

Assistant Professor, University of Utah, Utah

The AIChE Environmental Division is a great resource for me to learn about the current environmental challenges and to be up to date with the ongoing efforts by the leaders in the area. The ability to connect and collaborate with people from industries, government institutions as well as academia is a unique feature that allows synergistic efforts towards the common goal of coexisting with nature.

Kirti M. Yenkie

Assistant Professor, Rowan University, New Jersey

The AIChE Environmental Division is a great diverse and inclusive community of professionals and students addressing and leading multidisciplinary solutions to current environmental socio-economic challenges. Our division provides a great networking and partnership platform to share ideas and initiatives for your professional growth and others.
