AIChE Constitution Amendment Vote!

The vote for the AIChE National constitutional amendments ends on December 12th. Due to AIChE National rules, if 20% of eligible members do not vote, the election will not be considered valid. This would lead to the entire process having to be restarted, which means you'll keep getting bothered about this.

In fact, one of the items up for vote is that mandatory 20% participation requirement. People don't vote in numbers like they used to, so one of the amendments is to change approval to a 2/3rds approval vote for all votes cast.

So get out and vote before December 12th! And you could win an Apple Watch for voting!
