

Environmental Engineer 3

The Washington State Board of Registration for Professional Engineers and Land Surveyors is posting this message for the Department of Health.

Environmental Engineer 3 – Regional Engineer, The Washington State Department of Health, Office of Drinking Water is seeking a motivated Professional Engineer in Tumwater, Washington. This position will use engineering expertise to protect public health by responding to drinking water emergencies; regulating public water systems to ensure adequate quality and quantity of water supply; conducting sanitary survey inspections; providing engineering review of water system plans and design documents; providing technical assistance to local health jurisdictions, state and federal agencies, water system owners and operators, community officials, consulting engineers and citizen groups. Salary $61,632 - $80,892 per year, DOQ. For more information please contact Andy Anderson at (360) 236-3024.