13th AIChE Southwest Process Technology Conference

When: September 30 - October 1, 2021

Where: Sugar Land Marriott Town Square

The South Texas Section of the American Institute of Chemical Engineers, in partnership with the AIChE HQ, is hosting its 13th Annual AIChE Southwest Process Technology Conference at the Sugar Land Marriott Town Square, September 30 - October 1, 2021. The conference provides technical sessions, industry solutions in process technology, and networking opportunities for the nearly 500 chemical engineers and students that attend, as well as exhibits, a career fair, a happy hour reception, and a student program.

Please click Here for more information and for early bird registration fee.

To celebrate being in person with you for this highly anticipated regional conference, you'll receive $40 off the early bird rate when you use code SPTC21 JULY at checkout!

Also more information at South Texas section.

CALL FOR 2021 SPTC VOLUNTEERS

Volunteer duties typically include working at registration, as session aides for the technical presentations, assisting exhibitors, working meals and collecting event tickets.

Volunteers will receive free registration for the day or days they volunteer. If you are interested contact David Silarski at sts-membership@aiiche.org and let him know if you can work one or both days.

Sponsorship options:

Networking - A Way of Life! by Agnes Dillard

Networking is consistently ranked the #1 way that job seekers get hired. It's all about who you know, who you get to know, and who all of those people know!

Let's discuss how to take advantage of all opportunities (face to face and virtually) to network, meet awesome people, and have great conversations.
