

The D.I.C. Wang Award for Excellence in Biochemical Engineering

- Please join in our effort to endow a new award in Professor D.I.C. Wang's honor, an influential and inspiring leader in the field of biological engineering.
- Your corporate donation to the D.I.C. Wang Award for Excellence in Biochemical Engineering will allow us to recognize a distinguished leader in the field of biochemical engineering and biotechnology each year.
- All corporate donors to the award will be recognized nationally each year by both the American Institute of Chemical Engineers and the American Chemical Society.
