ABOUT THE CONFERENCE

The Latin American Conference on Process Safety, plays an important role to prevent major accidents through lifelong learning and continuous improvement in process safety practice. Center for Chemical Process Safety (CCPS) looks forward to continuing this tradition at the Buenos Aires conference to be held on September 10-13.

This 8th edition will be co-organized with the Regional Association of Oil, Gas and Biofuels Sector Companies in Latin America and the Caribbean (ARPEL), an institution founded in 1965 as a vehicle of cooperation and reciprocal assistance among sector companies, its main purpose is to actively contribute to industry integration and competitive growth, and to sustainable energy development in the region.

The event will cover the experiences and case studies of the different companies in process industries in general, including, among others: oil and gas, chemistry, mining, petrochemical, pharmaceutical, food, etc., focusing on the comprehensive development of some elements of process safety management.

The agenda of the "Latin American Conference on Process Safety" will consist of a series of previous workshops, about thirty technical presentations, the participation of keynote speakers as well as an exhibition.

PRESENTATION OF TECHNICAL PAPERS

The Conference will be carried out through a combination of oral presentations in the seven thematic sessions.

- Leadership and Culture
- Risk Identification and Management
- Management of Change
- Mechanical Integrity
- Process Safety Technology
- Emergency Management and Stakeholder Outreach
- Lessons Learned in Process Safety

Professionals of the area are invited to present papers through the web site of the Conference CLICK HERE.

OBJECTIVES

- Generate a high-level discussion on the implementation of process safety management in companies.
- Exchange experiences on cases of successful implementation of the different elements or aspects of process safety management.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

The Conference will be of special interest to senior executives, managers and mid-level managers as well as to professionals responsible for leading process safety management.

Professionals working in companies that are part of the value chain such as consulting and engineering, design and construction (EPC) companies, field service providers and insurers, among others, with interests in Latin America and the Caribbean will find in this congress an event of great value.

The conference will feature world-class speakers addressing the issue from a strategic, management and operational point of view.
