About The Panel Discussion

Process safety competency is the fundamental element of successful process safety programs and is closely related to the knowledge and training elements of the Risk-Based Process Safety (RBPS) System. Facilities continue to be challenged with "how to define process safety competency" to improve organizational learning and process safety culture. To prevent significant process safety hazards, it is crucial to strengthen individual & organizational process safety-related competencies.

The Speakers will discuss

- What is needed and what should be done to achieve, maintain and demonstrate competencies for process safety.
- Strategic initiatives and programs implemented by organizations to build process safety competencies.
