

RISING STAR

An AIChE Program

Leadership Workshop for Rising Star Women Engineers

Virtual Workshop | November 30th | 10:30 AM -1 PM EST

Rising Star, A Leadership Workshop for Women Engineers, is part of the AIChE® All for Good program to advance women in engineering. The program for early to mid-career women utilizes best practices and leading research on gender to advance professional goals.

Itinerary

Welcome & Introduction

Cathy Diana, Chief of Administration,
American Institute of Chemical Engineers
(AIChE)

Presentation

Susan Dunlap, Susan Dunlap Associates

Understanding effective communication styles and the best practices for women to counteract perceptions and mitigate stereotypes. Participants will develop skills for communicating with a more authentic presence to effectively meet and network in the workplace and beyond. Participants will receive an introduction to a variety of common communication styles used by men and women in the workplace to:

- Explore the dynamics of gender communication norms and stereotypes
- Learn how the following skills can differ by gender and the potential impact to career progression
- Confidence and Courage
- Self-Advocacy
- Presence

Empowering Women in Engineering -Panel Discussion

Panelists share perspectives on how women can navigate the workplace and communicate for success.

- Justine Smith, Senior Vice President for Petrochemicals, CP Chemicals
- Regina Davis, Refinery Manager, ExxonMobil
- TBD

Audience Participation & Questions

Women in Chemical Engineering, An introduction to WIC, Ann Fornof PH.D. Senior Research Specialist, 3M

AIChE Membership

- Gina Gatto, Manager of Membership, AIChE

Program Conclusion

ALL
FOR GOOD

Engineering for Inclusion

A core priority of the
Doing a World of Good campaign

For more information please contact Expedito Segovia expes@aiche.org