

DIERS VIRTUAL MEETING NOTICE

The Design Institute for Emergency Relief Systems (DIERS) was founded and continues to work to develop the methodologies required to size emergency pressure relief devices and systems to safely handle runaway chemical reactions and two-phase vapor-liquid flows. The postponed DIERS Spring Meeting will use the Microsoft TEAMS free software to conduct a three day (August 12 (Wed) - 14 (Fri), 2020) virtual meeting to cover what you need to know to size emergency pressure relief devices for runaway chemical reactions and two-phase vapor-liquid flows. The meeting will be held over a three day period and cover Runaway Reactions and Data Acquisition, Venting of Flammable / Toxic Vapors and Two-phase Flow, and ERS Design as follows:

TIME (EDT)	ACTIVITY
9:30 - 10:00	Establish Contact / Sign-in / Meeting and Software Instructions
10:00 - 1:00	Technical Presentations
1:00 - 1:30	Break / Video Technical Presentations
